

I am asking you to please fight the rollback of Net Neutrality.

A free and open internet is essential to every one of our citizens and to impose restrictions on any of us is an assault on our right to communicate freely. It is totally unfair to enable internet providers to discriminate against their customers by creating tiers of service and granting preference to those who have the most money.

I am urging you to protect free speech, and keep the Internet open for everyone.